

Bank Purchases California Cafe In Local Project

New Bank Branch Expected
To Be Ready for Use
Late in Summer

Negotiations were completed this week between the Bank of America NT&SA and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Polyanich in which the bank purchased the California Cafe property at Bridge and Commercial Row to house the local branch.

R. A. Scott, Truckee branch manager, said he had been informed that the transaction was completed this morning.

Revenue stamps reveal the price paid for the property was in excess of $65,000. Another $75,000 has been allocated for remodeling purposes, making a total price for the new branch office approximately $140,000.

Expansion of the bank's facilities was found necessary due to the fast growing business in this and the Lake Tahoe area.

Mr. and Mrs. Polyanich have leased the west section of the California building from the bank and plan to continue their cafe and bar business there in the smaller quarters. This section of the building was recently occupied by the Truckee Public Utility District offices and Chamber of Commerce headquarters, now being moved into their new location in the Russian building at the Masonic Hall.

The bank will move from its present leased location in the Sierra Tavern building, where it has been for many years, about September 1. Scott said present plans call for immediate reconstruction and alterations at the California in preparation for moving the bank facilities.

The California was built 20 years ago by Anton Filipic and was operated as a restaurant since, first by the builder and later by the Polyanichs, who purchased the property during the war.

No interruption in the bank's operation will result from the move, Scott said.

KNIGHT VISIT MEETING SITE IS CHANGED

L. W. (Skip) Ferdinand, president of the Truckee 20-30 Club, reports that the inter-club meeting Friday, June 13, to hear Lieut. Gov. Goodwin Knight on his local visit, has been shifted to Donner Lake Lodge. The meeting was originally scheduled for the high school but due to conflict with year-end activity, the move was made necessary, Ferdinand said.

The 20-30 Club, which will host the lieutenant governor, has issued invitations to other service clubs in Truckee, at Lake Tahoe and in Sierra Valley to attend. James (Hap) Warnke, manager of Donner Lake Lodge, gave assurance to the committee of adequate facilities for the session.

Harvey Hocker was named president of the 20-30 Club at their meeting held at Brown's Cafe on Wednesday. William Frey is the vice president and Cliff Ellis is sergeant at arms. Dr. Robert A. Feldt, who is leaving for his post with the Air Force in Oklahoma, was given a farewell party by the club.

Music, Art Fete To Be Presented Here By School

The annual Tahoe-Truckee High School art and music festival will be held tonight at 7 p.m. at the high school.

The Tahoe-Truckee mixed chorus will be heard in an extensive program. Art work by high school and elementary school students will be on display.

Robert Briggs, high school art director, says of the display, "It will attempt through student work to express what art is and show the natural transition of child art in its primitive form, through realism to the advanced concepts of cubism and expressionism. Elementary school art, from the four elementary schools in the district, will be represented to express the simple forms and prints from modern French painters will explain advanced forms. It will be an opportunity for everyone to see a large selection of student work from elementary through high school and at the same time develop an understanding of the whole realm of graphic art."

The chorus, conducted by Ernest Douglas, will present a group of love songs, climaxed by "Tenderly," a soprano solo by Toni Street; a group of spirituals; three numbers from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess"; "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place" by Brahms and "How Shall I Filly Meet Thee" by Bach; "Clouds" by Pohlmann and "The Bells of St. Mary's," arranged by Harried; "Madame Jeannette" by Murray, conducted by student director Audrey Ann Goodpasture; "Without a Song," sung by tenor soloist Russ Harried; and "Over the Rainbow," sung by a girls' trio consisting of Toni Street, Audrey Ann Goodpasture and Dorene Quam. Mrs. Robert Briggs will be piano accompanist.

The public is invited to attend and to see and hear the work that the students of the district are doing in the fine arts. Admission is free.

Donner Lumber Concern Is Sold To Gene Welch

Jerry Lewis Will Continue
Earth Moving Work
In This Area

G. E. Lewis today announced the sale of his stock and equipment at the Donner Trail Lumber Company at Donner Lake to Eugene Welch of that same vicinity.

Lewis said the sale of the stock and equipment was prompted by the condition of Mrs. Lewis, now recuperating from a serious illness this spring. Lewis said he plans to devote as much time as possible to seeing that she recovers completely.

The new operator of the lumber company is not a novice in the business, having had more than 20 years experience in the building and supply field. Recently he and Mrs. Welch have operated the Donner Coffee Shop across the highway from the lumber company.

Lewis said he will continue to operate his earth moving equipment but does not want to be confined to the lumber yard at the present.

Lewis expressed his appreciation for the fine support given him during the operation of the Donner Trail Lumber and said he hoped this same support would be given his successor.

GAIENNE QUILTS DISTRICT BOARD; PACE IS NAMED

F. W. Gaienne this week resigned as a member of the Truckee Fire District board of commissioners, after 16 years of service. Superintendent for the Sierra Pacific Power Company here, Gaienne gave the increasing work and responsibility of that position and the press of other business as his reason for resigning, with reluctance.

A. (Tony) Pace, currently assistant fire chief of the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department, is reported to be the commission's choice to succeed Gaienne.

Gaienne is a former fire chief of the TVFD.

R. N. LITTLE MOVES REAL ESTATE OFFICE

The R. N. Little real estate and insurance offices were moved this week from the justice court building on the main street to the second floor, front of the Masonic Hall.

The Masonic Lodge, which formerly used the front portion of the second floor as a small banquet room moved the kitchen and dining room to the third floor and thus provided convenient office spaces on the second floor.

Little has used a portion of the justice court office since an explosion last winter forced them to move from their former location in the Smith building.

Little invites his friends and customers to come to the new offices, which will be redecorated and modernized in the near future.

November Run-Off Seen For South Tahoe Post

There apparently will be a November runoff for the vacancy on the Lake Valley Judicial District bench at the south end of Lake Tahoe. Nearly complete returns from Tuesday's primary election gave John Lawson 187, Harold Buchanan 97, Luther Hulse 75 and Francis Johnson 32.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

With the 1952 primary election a matter of history, there is a lot of speculation on the results, but the one potent factor which stands out above others was the big turnout of voters in this district. An even 500 went to the polls in Truckee to indicate their wishes in the races and a record is believed to have thus been established for the local precincts. The unprecedented response exemplifies the alertness of local voters to take a part in their community, state and national affairs. Whether or not your candidate won or lost, everyone will agree that Truckee and its environs are no longer apathetic but are anxious to take part in local and national affairs.

CHARRISON WINS TAHOE JUDICIAL JOB BY 36 VOTES

The consolidation of the two justice courts at North Tahoe resulted in a contest between the two incumbents to fill the one office and Harry Charrison of Kings Beach won over Clarence Vernon of Tahoe City 320 to 284, a majority of 36 votes.

Kings Beach gave Charrison 249 votes to Vernon's 66, while Tahoe City backed Vernon with a 218 to 71 vote.

Whether or not this will mean the justice court will be located at Kings Beach or Tahoe City or at a neutral location has not been announced. This decision is up to the Placer County board of supervisors.

Summit Issue Is Given To State For An Opinion

Attorneys Deny Claim By Supervisor Rowe On Jurisdiction

The Nevada County board of supervisors has adopted a resolution to ask the attorney general's office for an opinion on the right of supervisory boards to declare offices of special districts vacant and to appoint new directors.

The resolution brought to a close a stormy two-hour session of the board Monday at which around 30 Donner Summit residents appeared for a hearing after Supervisor Frank Rowe of Grass Valley threatened action to oust present directors of the Donner Summit Public Utility District and name new ones.

Mrs. William Rossi of Sacramento and Soda Springs, Mrs. Jack Marturano and Mrs. Otto Frederick of Norden spoke for a group opposed to the present directors. T. L. Chamberlain of Auburn and E. A. Wilson of San Mateo, attorneys, were spokesmen for supporters of the present directors.

Chamberlain contended the supervisors have no legal right to take any action in vacating or naming directors. Mrs. Rossi urged removal of all five but said two are men who could be retained and who would work with other people. She did not specify who the two are.

Rowe had demanded action after a scheduled election for May 6 was omitted by the district. Wilson said skipping the election was done at his suggestion.

Wilson stated that within two years it could be possible to start floating a bond issue to finance a water system for the summit area. However, he added, he has been told by state officials the district also must consider a sewage disposal system.

Nelson Stone Is Named As Local US. Forest Officer

Several moves and transfers affecting the Tahoe National Forest personnel have been made this spring and are announced by Forest Supervisor Guerdon Ellis.

To replace Fire Control Assistant William Curran of Truckee, who resigned to enter private business, Nelson Stone was transferred from the Camptonville ranger district. Stone began his forest service career at Truckee in 1935 and has served in various capacities in the organization at Truckee and Camptonville.

Replacing Stone at Camptonville is Antone Rogina of the Big Bend ranger district. Rogina had been at Big Bend for three years and came to the Tahoe from the Eldorado National Forest. Hugh McLean was transferred from the Trinity forest to replace Rogina at Big Bend.

Transferring from the Modoc forest to the Sierraville ranger district is Caig Giffen, assistant district ranger, replacing Wayne Valley, who was moved to the Sequoia forest. Emory McCarroll, Camptonville patrolman, is temporarily serving as fire control assistant at North Bloomfield, replacing Vane Pitney, who resigned to enter private business.

Fire Crew Foreman Dean Vinton was moved from Foresthill to Truckee to serve in the same capacity at the Truckee ranger station.

HOME AT TAHOE RAZED BY FIRE LAST THURSDAY

TAHOE CITY—John N. Pedersen, who operates Ray's Drive-In at Sparks, set his loss from fire on May 29 at approximately $40,000.

His summer home on Brockway Hill at North Tahoe burned to the ground and was a total loss when fire, which started in some old logs on a widely used mountain trail, enveloped his house around 3:45 p.m. last Thursday.

Forest service officials believe the fire started from a carelessly discarded cigarette about 200 feet from the residence and, fanned by a light wind, spread rapidly.

Nelson Stone, fire control assistant at Truckee, arrived in record time with two pumps and seven men and they were augmented by residents of the Brockway-Kings Beach area, whose services were highly valued. Pedersen congratulated Stone and his efficient crew and declared their efforts in preventing the spread of the fire to the adjoining woods was little short of miraculous.

About a quarter of an acre was burned over.

Loehr, Snell Win At Primary As Record Vote Cast

Both West End Supervisors
Face Run-Off Election
Next November

By a scant majority of forty votes, Henry G. Loehr, chairman of the Nevada County board of supervisors, was returned to office as representative of the fifth district at Tuesday's primary election, defeating his opponent, James Melver Jr., 298 to 258.

The returns are complete but unofficial. There are 25 absentee ballots to be canvassed June 20.

The race was hotly contested and it was not until the final few minutes of the counting by the three Truckee election boards that decision of the voters was known.

At Donner Summit, Loehr led 26 to 30 and at Red Dog and You Bet, in the west extremity of the district, the incumbent polled 11 out of 12 votes cast.

By precincts, the count showed the following results: Truckee No. 1 (grammar school), Loehr 87, Melver 110; Truckee No. 2A (fire house), Loehr 75, Melver 76; Truckee No. 2B (justice court), Loehr 95, Melver 45.

For County Judge
The three Truckee precincts gave incumbent Superior Judge James Snell a margin of 131 votes over his rival, Vernon Stoll, the count being for Snell 303, for Stoll 172.

In Soda Springs a similar tendency prevailed with Snell getting 40 votes to 18 for Stoll. With only 40 votes still to be tallied in the county as a whole, Judge Snell was leading 4053 to 3470 and the absentee ballots could not overcome the lead held by the incumbent.

Judge Fosten Wilson, unopposed incumbent in the Truckee Judicial District, piled up a tremendous complimentary vote in the record turnout Tuesday.

Douglas Barrett and B. W. Reynolds were reelected as members of the Republican central committee from the fifth district, Barrett getting 179 votes and Reynolds 92. Their names did not appear on the Democratic ballots.

Nationally
Truckee and other precincts in the area gave a clear majority to Earl Warren and Estes Kefauver for their respective presidential bids and aided Senator William F. Knowland and Representative Clair Engle to return to Congress, winners on both tickets.

Incumbent Francis Lindsay was leading Bliss Harper for the state assembly seat 234 to 190 in Truckee but trailed 26 to 28 at Soda Springs.

Kings Beach and Tahoe City together gave Lindsay a good majority over Harper, polling 318 for the incumbent and 171 for his opponent.

State Senator Harold Johnson, without any opposition, rolled up a large vote of confidence all over the district.

Record Vote
The Truckee precincts set a new record when an even 500 turned out Tuesday, 201 voting in No. 1, 159 in 2A and 140 in 2B precincts.

Other Supervisors
Results of the voting at Grass Valley showed Frank Rowe, incumbent supervisor, leading a field of five candidates with 1293 votes, his near rival being John Frank with 1037 and Southern, Hughes and Trathen trailing. It is indicated Rowe and Frank would be candidates at the November general election.

Supervisor Carl Tobiasen was also leading at Nevada City with 753 votes over Curtis Clark's 489 and George Carter's 483. William Mullis was trailing with 364. Carter or Clark will run off against Tobiasen at the general election.

SUMMIT PEOPLE SEEK MUTUAL SOLUTION TO THEIR PROBLEMS

by FRAN COUILLARD
SODA SPRINGS— Election enthusiasm was dimmed on June 3 for the Donner Summit Public Utility District's regular meeting fell on this date.

Recent county supervisory rulings that seemingly affected the status quo of the board of directors of said utility and an ultimatum by the state board of health that pure water sources must be obtained were "pincers" that grasped the district with octopus strength and a definite answer had to be obtained to both problems the beginning of this election week.

A stormy session at Nevada City last Monday between supervisors and attorneys representing the utility board was witnessed by those who approved of said board and those who opposed, with a settlement in the offering to be rendered ultimately by the attorney general. However, the Nevada City meet had a tendency to clear the air between the mountain factions as various problems were beaten out to a conclusion.

The June 3rd regular meeting consummated the peace movement when the assembly approved of a water source that "could or could not be considered a permanent solution" to the water problems that have set the "hill" back with recent bad publicity.

The solution is the purchasing of the Soda Springs Water Company, owned by Virgil Jones, to be augmented by the digging of wells in Summit Valley. Old timers in the area who know the terrain approved the contemplated source and a vote was taken from the assembly as to their approval of the project. There was no opposition to the plan.

Milton Hogle, spokesman and "mediator" at the meeting, pleaded eloquently for the unification of the area and fact that there was no opposition to the plan was the first sign that the smoke of battle has cleared away on the mountain top. It was suggested by Bill Rutherford, chairman of the utility board, that Hogle be chairman of the investigation of the newly contemplated source of water and that he pick a committee to cooperate with the board of directors. The motion received unanimous approbation and the meeting was adjourned with the dove of peace hovering over the assembly that has been previously torn by strife and contention.

Hogle's committee is composed of Brant Chaplin, Jack Patten, James Sherritt and Ray McCarty.

THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for their loyal support on last Tuesday's election for Supervisor of the Fifth District, Nevada County. Although the result did not balance in my favor, it did show a definite change in the trend of public opinion. I feel your vote justifies making a similar effort four years hence.

James McIver

Thank You

I take this means of thanking the voters of the 5th Supervisory District of Nevada County for re-electing me to represent you on the County Board. As in the past, I shall strive to conduct the affairs of the office in such a fashion as to secure the greatest good possible for the greatest number possible at all times. Your supervisor is your public servant. Feel free to discuss your problems with me. Again, thanks for the fine turnout Tuesday.

Henry G. Loehr

Thanks, Friends!

Although I was unopposed for re-election as Judge of the Truckee Judicial District, I received a large complimentary vote at Tuesday's primary election. I was flattered and pleased by this token of your friendship and confidence and will strive to justify that confidence during my incumbency.

Gimmicks as Old as Campaigns, But Buttons Are Not Ballots

by CLEM WHITAKER JR.
Button, button, election campaign buttons.

Every serious presidential candidate in the history of U. S. politics—except George Washington—has striven to become a pin-up favorite. And although no campaign buttons, except perhaps a homemade one here or there, were in vogue when Washington was a presidential candidate, historians report the oversight was covered shortly after he took office. The young men of Washington's time, shortly after he took office. The young men of Washington's time, shortly after the first President's inauguration, adopted buttons of brass with the initials G.W., or inscribed "Long Live the President."

Today's "I Like Ike" buttons, "Win With Taft" skirts for women, Kefauver coonskin caps and the rest, probably will set a new record for numbers due to the nation's larger population, but aren't likely to be more ornate than those of earlier generations.

Buttons of all sorts, gimmicks of every nature, have been used with increasing fervor by candidates ever since Washington's time.

In the earliest campaigns, research men state, the campaign buttons were of brass, copper and tin and generally featured bas-reliefs of the candidates. Politicians today report these buttons must have been pretty expensive numbers. While tin buttons of the John Quincy Adams campaign reportedly still are in existence, campaign emblems really came into their own in 1840 when William Henry Harrison captured the presidency. Harrison went all out: the Harrison portrait was on handkerchiefs and dishes and his log cabin symbol was worked into pottery banks, butter stamps and molds, and cups, while his supporters adopted the coonskin cap to wear (a la Kefauver).

In 1860, during the Abraham Lincoln-Stephen Douglas fight, a new button was introduced—small tintype portraits enclosed in gilt frames. This type button seems to have remained popular for over 30 years, only to be supplanted in 1896, during the William McKinley-William Jennings Bryan campaign, with celluloid buttons (still in use, though expensive).

Many of the early celluloid buttons, the historians tell us, were quite fancy. Some had silk fringes and gold frames.

Popular though the campaign button is in American politics, events have proved the number of buttons or gimmicks to show in a candidate's behalf is no prediction of the way the election will go. In 1940, badge makers report, 23 million Wendell Willkie buttons were made as against 21 million FDR buttons—yet FDR became the first president to win election to three terms. More Dewey buttons were worn than Truman buttons, too.

Campaign buttons, it seems, although indelibly a part of the U.S. election scene, are just for the guys and dolls who want to tell the world about their candidate.

Auburn Attorney Is Ill In Capital Hospital

AUBURN—Lorimer B. Harrell, attorney with the law offices of C. Ray Robinson in Auburn, was admitted to the Sutter Hospital at Sacramento, on May 28 for observation and treatment of an arthritic condition of his neck. It is expected he will remain there two or three weeks.

In the meantime, Ronald G. Cameron, lawyer of the Merced office of the law offices of C. Ray Robinson is in Auburn and is continuing the work of Harrell.

Federal Payroll Grows

At the first of the year, the federal government had 300,000 more employees than it had at the first of 1951, according to the bureau of labor statistics.

AUDUBON CAMP AT SUMMIT OPENING JUNE 15 FOR SEASON

Outdoor enthusiasts, youth leaders, recreation workers, conservationists, teachers and those wanting an unusual vacation in the high Sierra are enrolling in the Audubon Camp of California. There are five two-week sessions, beginning June 15.

Located at famed Sugar Bowl Lodge at Norden in the scenic, historic Donner Summit area, the camp program features outdoor and indoor study of the wild flowers, birds, animals, insects, trees and geology of the region, as well as practical teaching methods and visual aids in nature education and conservation.

In addition to station-wagon field trips to Lake Tahoe and to Nevada desert areas, also nearby streams, marshes and ponds, there is opportunity for swimming, horseback riding, hiking, fishing and an all-day boat trip around Lake Tahoe.

Evening programs will include campfire singing, folk dancing, illustrated talks on nature subjects using slides and movies.

The instruction staff, directed by Vaughan MacCaughey, includes Ferdinand S. Ruth, East Contra Costa Junior College; Robert Hayes and Miss Margaret Stason, Pasadena City College; Wilbert Robinson, Hartnell College; Miss Dorothy Treat, National Audubon Society; Donald Eidemille, Texas A and M College.

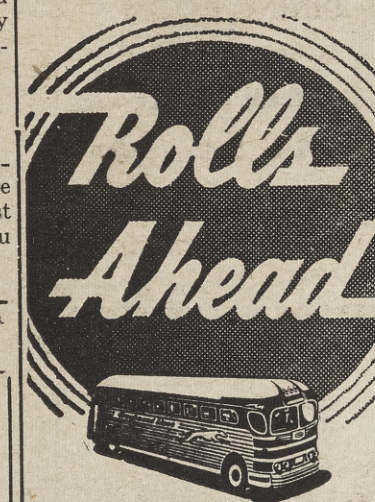

Lodging, board, tuition and field trip transportation are all included in the fee of $50. Enrollment is limited to 50 campers per session. For applications and additional information, those interested may contact the National Audubon Society, California Office, 693 Sutter St., Room 201, San Francisco.

MITCHELL GUESTS

Among visitors at Lake Tahoe over the holiday weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cummings and daughter, Annette, San Francisco; Mrs. Rose Marie Rodriguez, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Hal Sharrow and children, Linda, Jane and Steve, San Anselmo, all being guests of the Imon Mitchells of Sunnyside.

SUMMIT LODGE THIEF IS SENT TO PRISON AFTER GUILTY PLEA

NEVADA CITY—John Lee Low was sentenced to San Quentin prison by Superior Judge James Snell last week after a report by Probation Officer Thomas Barrett recommended against probation.

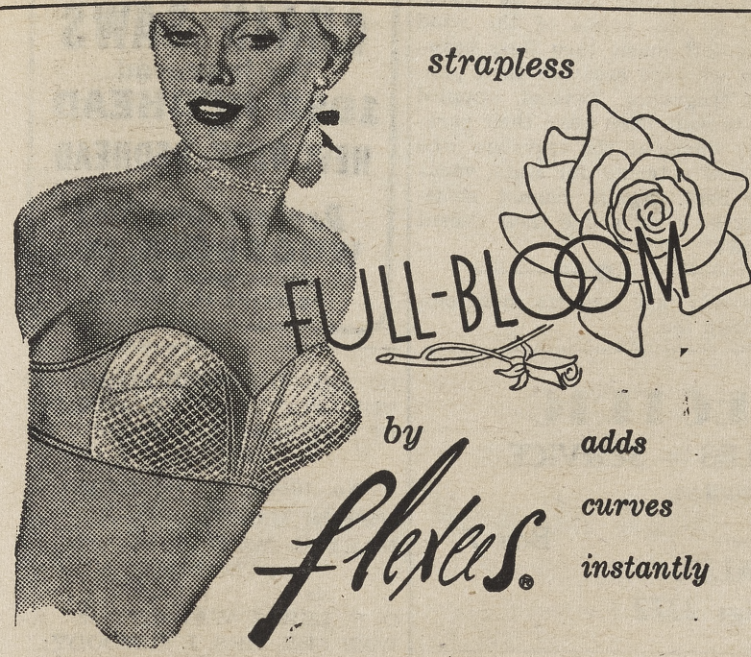

Low, 27 year old handyman formerly employed at Donner Summit Lodge, pleaded guilty recently to grand theft from that place. He was accused of taking more than $500 from cash drawers, a cigarette machine and a juke box at the lodge on the night of April 28.

His record of conflicts with the law was too extensive to justify probation, Judge Snell decided. Low chose to appear without an attorney.

From San Diego—
Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Johnson arrived this week from San Diego to live in their Donner Lake home. From Feather Falls—

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Helgeson have returned from Feather Falls where the former was on business for several weeks.

Summit Scene

by FRAN COUILLARD

Milton Hogle, Tony Donadio, Brant Chaplin, Art Couillard and James Sherritt show evidences of a little wear around the edges. The "boys" journeyed to Genoa, Nevada, May 24 for the annual E Clampus Vitus wingding. Brant Chaplin was "the poor blind candidate" on this momentous occasion.

ion, meaning in "Clamper" language that he was one of the initiates. This being what it is, it is hard to find out what initiation procedure is, but we still maintain that the "boys" look a little worn around the edges.

The Merrill family arrived "en masse" this week end to visit the William Parrotts. Parley (Papa Merrill) working at the Snow Lab a he does, insures the family a trip up from the warming-up valley now and then, for the family lives in Sacramento. Having watched the little Merrills in their growing up process, we are happy to see them every so often and watch the changes a few months make.

Speaking of the Snow Lab reminds us that William Lowry, who in his spare time delights the mountain with his original and outstanding caricatures, left recently for Cincinnati to claim the gal who has been wearing his engagement ring for quite some time. We sit by the window to watch for the return of the bride, who we understand, not to be outdone by her scientist husband, is a scientist in her own right—a nuclear scientist at that.

Little pink and blue things were being untied in the Cisco region May 26 by Mrs. William Carrico who looks forward to a playmate for handsome little William Jr.

Whilst the Virgil Misener and the Jack Pattens wife away some time, still on vacation, Jack and Pat Woodward return from their southern California sojourn for fun, business and pleasure. Jergen (Red) Vind leaves his pet project (the organization of a mountain chamber of commerce) for a short spell and he too journeys south. Goldie and Ralph Rowton leave the cool mountain breezes for a few days in the Stockton area. Their daughter is to undergo an operation in a few days.

In congruous it seems to watch quite a goodly number of skiers on the hill, last Sunday! Temperature 66 degrees. Baseball game going on at Truckee—and skiing six miles away! There still remains over five feet of snow registered on the snow stake. Some beautiful sunburns acquired yesterday from the reflection of sun on snow. A goodly number also acquired on the walk around Elmo Moriano's Beacon Hill swimming pool as the natives, in this in-between season strive to acquire a suntan before a summer's rush locks them indoors again, to pale away.

A new attraction on the hill is the Soda Springs Hotel aquarium. The Chaplins start a tropical fish display that is fascinating to the natives, who watch the addition of new types of fish daily.

There are really two bartenders at Rainbow, one on day shift and one on night shift, so don't let it throw you if you think not. For Max Hart and Don Hart, though not twins, are brothers who dress alike, speak alike and certainly look alike. Don's been on the mountain for some years but Max recently returned from the wars and the boys aren't about to be separated, if they can help it—a real Damon and Pythias friendship and it's nice to be around them.

One of the cars parked in front of Beacon Hill Lodge tells us that Mr. and Mrs. Felix Moriano are visiting their son Elmo once again.

Another week came in headed by Memorial Day and the biggest parade of cars we have ever seen on Highway 40. Bet traffic counts will substantiate this! Understand all beds are filled in the Tahoe Forest Hospital, so we wondered what was to become of the occupants of the cars we watched from our front window who ran crazily bumper to bumper. And speaking of the hospital, we dislike to report that our good friend and neighbor, Eula Sherritt, is abed there at present.

We welcome new neighbors, the Ray Soranis, who have purchased Pratt's Garage. Mrs. Sorani's given name is Janet, so she tells us friendly like with hand outstretched, so again we welcome Ray and Janet.

A note from the Bud Zorichs at Plymouth informs us that their long vacation is at an end and that they will be joining us again shortly.

Edvi Aro announces that he'll 'tend bar at the Ski Ranch from now on, whilst Jack Woodward contemplates making extensive improvements on his Ski Ranch holdings. Understand a new chair lift for that hill will be installed this summer and that isn't all as far as improvements are concerned, we hear.

Again we sing our dirge about our unbundled trademarks—the fractured firs and pines that falter and faint as they edge our highways. In a few months those that cannot thrust their roots back into their native habitat will crackle and sear. Will they then not become fire hazards? We've lived neath their shade, we've listened to the hands of the wind draw soft music thru their branches, we have breathed their pungent fragrance. Twisted, crippled and broken, they wave their paralyzed limbs at the travelers who are now entering our state, vacation bent. Again, cannot something be done about their decent burial?

Canada now imports more coffee than tea.

SWANEE'S Tahoe Letter

Tahoe City, June 2
Dear Tahoeites:
Am writing my last column from my little apartment at the rear of Jack and Dinty's where I have lived for the past year. Tomorrow I move to Tahoe Inn for a week and then to my new quarters at the Bud Scott's home on the lakeshore beyond the Catholic Chapel, the old Black home which they bought last year and have since been remodeling. Had a visit to Dr. Nessim's office twice last week for a nerve block as my leg started up with its old trouble but at this writing am much better—and think I'll live. My daughter, Marie, and grandson Billie came over from Reno Saturday night to give me a hand with the packing and moving, and so tomorrow I should be vacating.

Townfolk are admiring the new clock which Tahoe Realty Company has installed in the outside center of their office building. It gives the time via day or night.

The political meeting held last Wednesday night at Tahoe Community hall was very poorly attended but the candidates were not dismayed by the lack of listeners and spoke at length on their platforms and policies. Mrs. Jeanette Mitchell arranged and presided at the meeting, attended by 18 persons. Present were Senator Harold Johnson, Assemblyman Francis Lindsay, Supervisor L. L. Anderson and his opponent Cliff Hills, Judge C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City and Judge Harry Charrison of Kings Beach.

The C. O. Valentines certainly are seeing a lot of country these days, and last week I had travel folders and pretty picture cards from Haiti, Jamaica, the Bahamas, Puerto Rico, Nassau and the Dominican Republic. They report the weather hot but the scenery and the foods fascinating. No word on when they will return home, but they send best regards to all their old friends in this region.

Somehow the name of Lewis Fellows was omitted last week in the Sun when he received his junior first aid card, along with several others who completed their Red Cross courses.

George Chambers arrived at the lake last Wednesday and has been mighty busy since his arrival getting things in shape for the resort's opening. Except for some broken pipes and minor damage, the Chambers' Lodge buildings held up well over the past heavy winter. Efficient caretakers, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Albert, just might have had something to do with it.

The Boy Scouts of Tahoe City were grateful for a generous check from Mrs. Evelyn Bliss of Tahoe City, who made the donation in memory of her old friend, the late Dave Chambers.

Reservations for the Women's Club of Tahoe luncheon to be held at Tahoe Inn on Thursday are slow coming in. This is one of the most enjoyable of the club's meetings during the summer and only the pressure of business could keep the members home.

Mrs. Louise Geir reports this week that the clothing for Korea drive is also lagging a bit and the boxes are only half filled. Hope you'll scout around and drop a few usable articles in before the drive closes.

Will have more news on the cleaning up of our local cemetery next week and am heartily gratified at the ready response I am finding among our men folks here.

The Denis Sachs entertained at a cocktail hour Monday, guests including the Imon Mitchells, the Howard Guths and the Jimmie Martins.

Fishing at Tahoe continues somewhat spotty. Waldo Gross of Lake Forest has had excellent luck in piloting his customers so far this season, with frequent limits, the largest running around 8½ pounds, and mostly mackinaw. Many local fishermen believe the creeks are bringing in a lot of extra feed for the fish, who do not choose to bite. Two successful fishermen who tried McKinney Creek Sunday were Imon Mitchell of Sunnyside and his houseguest, Hal Sharrow of San Anselmo. Mitchell caught the limit of brook trout and Sharrow took seven nice ones. The largest of Mitchell's catch ran around 11 inches.

Guests at Sanford's Town and Country over the holiday weekend included Dr. and Mrs. A. Jacobson of Colusa; Mr. and Mrs. C. Carlson and family, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Berry, Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. D. Staples, Atherton, and Mr. and Mrs. T. Stanley, San Francisco.

Tahoe Lake elementary school students will start summer vacation June 6. On Monday the band and chorus of Tahoe-Truckee high school entertained the school here with a program and on Tuesday, June 3, there will be a general assembly talent show staged by the lower grades in the auditorium to which parents and guests are invited. Friday will see a round of farewell parties in the various classes, the program to be arranged by the children, with the teachers to act as supervisors. Games and refreshments will be enjoyed.

A total of nine citations were handed out by highway patrol officers at Tahoe City during the holiday weekend to motorists accused of running the stop sign at the Tahoe City wye. Two paid fines on Monday. They are Shirley Zastrow, Reno, and Lester N. Johnson of Vallejo. Both paid fines of $5 each and both told Judge C. W. Vernon they failed to note the sign, although there are two warning signs along the highway before the intersection is reached. The other seven violators are expected in this week.

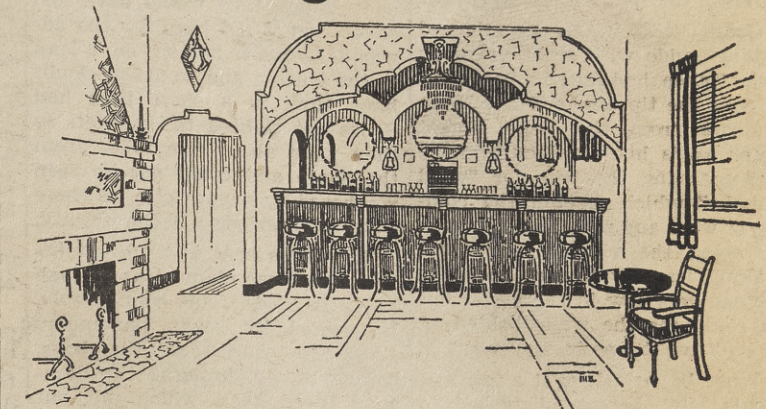

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beavers of Tahoe Park had an interesting experience one night last week when they were awakened by the barking of their collie. Mrs. B. a bit annoyed by her pet's persistence, went to the door and ordered him to desist. But the pup just kept on and soon his mistress saw the dim outline of a bear not far distant, which had just dumped over the family garbage can and was leisurely investigating its contents. She called her husband and for 15 minutes they watched the bear, undaunted by the dog's yelping from under the porch, as he rummaged around the yard, tore boxes apart for a bit of sweets he found, and then meandered on to the garbage can of the Beavers' neighbors, the Sextons, where he went through the same routine. He weighed around 400 pounds and showed no fear of beast or man. His depredations have been reported in other parts of town but he has been seen only by the Beavers to date.

That's all for this week. Adios and good luck all, as ever, Swanee

A DEMON

The summer sun can be a real demon on your warm weather clothes. Perspiration and dust cause them to soil more rapidly, and the heat causes them to lose their press.

Picture of a Pair who just waked up

HERE in the driveway is a Buick. It has just arrived. It belongs to this proud young couple. They've just "arrived" too.

They've arrived at a discovery—the discovery that owning a Buick instead of a "low-priced car" isn't so much a matter of money.

It's a matter of knowing the facts of life. Buick prices are closer to the prices of smaller, less powerful, less distinguished cars than most people think.

Why don't you check into this?

You'll find you could pay $300 to $400 more—and still not match the horsepower of this nimble beauty.

You could pay hundreds of dollars more—and still not get any more interior room, or richer fabrics.

But that's only part of the story.

The big thing about any car is the way it goes. So you ought to find out how this car rides the road—the freedom from bobble and sway that cost a million real dollars to develop.

You ought to sample the way Dynaflo Drive® feeds the power—with a steady swoop and unbroken smoothness in city traffic, on hills, or out on the open road.

And you ought to know how it feels to touch off that Fireball 8 Engine. With all its might, this high-compression valve-in-head gets a lot of miles from a gallon of gas.

We'll tell you this—because a lot of folks have told us this: No matter what car you're driving now—no matter what cars you've looked at—they'll never seem the same after you try this one.

Just give us a chance to prove it—and you'll have a lot of fun.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

WALDO GROSS SAVES YOUNG FOLKS FROM POSSIBLE DROWNING

TAHOE CITY—Only today are friends and neighbors of modest Waldo Gross of Lake Forest learning of the heroism he displayed last Saturday when he saved the lives of five unidentified young people whose speedboat would've sunk in mid-lake had he not sighted them and gone to their rescue.

Gross, who is an experienced fishing guide with eight years on Lake Tahoe, had taken a party out to near the tip of the Tahoe Beds, offshore from the Lake Forest area. As is his usual custom, he was scanning the lake for "wind streaks" which foretell the coming of wind and rough water, when he spied the visitors' speedboat making its way toward shore. It seemed very low in the water but he could see the wake behind it, so he knew it was in movement.

When he looked for it a few moments later he was disturbed to see five persons standing up in the boat, which appeared to be only a few inches above the water line. Upon investigation he found as he approached the boat three girls and two young men in near-hysterical condition as their boat sank deeper and deeper into the water.

Pulling alongside nearby, he talked to them for a few moments in an effort to calm them and then took the girls into his boat while he threw the men buckets with which to bail out their own boat, which they would have forsaken had it not been for the advice of Gross. It had sprung a leak in the bottom and would no doubt have sunk in a short time had Gross not sighted the quintet, as they were about five miles from the shore and could not be seen nor heard by anyone else, as there were no other boats in the vicinity.

The Gross boat is a 16-foot in-board and was planned as a crash boat. It rides four comfortably. It carried its seven passengers safely to shore and the boys, bailing madly, brought the damaged speed boat, which put out from Seagrave's Beach and Har-

TAHOE CITY SEWAGE BOND BALLOTING SCHEDULED JUNE 30

TAHOE CITY—C. W. Vernon has announced that June 30 is the date of the special election which is being called for the Tahoe City Public Utility District to vote on sewage bonds. Election hours are from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. and the election board will consist of Mrs. Evelyn Bliss, inspector; Ida Pomin and Corrine Otton, judges; Violet Pomin, Helen Main and Lenora Bartel.

Qualified electors will pass on two issues, both of which must carry in order to secure the new sewage plant. These are a vote on the $97,000 obligation bonds with a three-fourths favorable vote necessary for passage; and a vote on general assessment bonds, which require a majority vote.

A loan of $26,000 has been approved by the state from the million dollar reserve fund set aside for the purpose of aiding districts during such sewage emergencies as Tahoe City is now undergoing.

If the election is successful, the directors of the TCPUD will call for bids on the general obligation bonds immediately and bids on the work will be advertised. The engineer must run definite lines over the property involved so that contractors can figure accurately.

REALTORS TO MEET AT LAKE TAHOE WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18

TAHOE CITY—President Harry Stuble of the Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce and a special committee of local realtors were scheduled to meet at the office of the chamber at Tahoe City Tuesday night to make plans for the entertainment of the 35 to 40 guests anticipated at the monthly realtors' convention to be held at Cal-Vada June 18, an annual affair. A prominent speaker will be engaged for the occasion.

Members and guests will arrive at Homewood Resort for luncheon on the 18th and then will be taken for a drive around the lake to view the historical and interesting spots of the trip to include a visit to Squaw Valley. They will gather at Cal-Vada for cocktails and dinner will follow at the resort's dining room.

WAY TO PEACE OPEN FOR MANKIND, SCIENTISTS DECLARE

BOSTON—Spiritual understanding alone can pierce today's corruption in government and world confusion and lead mankind to lasting safety and security, The Christian Science board of directors said Monday (June 2).

About 7,500 Christian Scientists from throughout the world heard the director's special message at the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The directors said that human ingenuity alone will never solve mankind's deepest problems. But they added that the means of right adjustment are spiritual and are immediately available.

"Not numbers nor human might but Truth—spiritual understanding—is the power to mold the world's destiny," they declared.

Named president of The Mother Church for the coming year was Lt. Col. Robert Ellis Key of London, England, associate editor of the Christian Science religious periodicals. He has been active in religion for more than 40 years.

including service as practitioner, lecturer and authorized teacher.

"The keynote of this century is not chaos but Christ," Col. Key told the huge crowd. "War and destruction have been associated with the first half of the twentieth century, but progress and spiritualization will mark the succeeding years."

"The old materialism must be replaced by a spiritual concept of creation," he added.

Mrs. Lora C. Rathvon, retiring president, said there is "growing recognition that spiritual enlightenment, and spiritual enlightenment alone, will blot out the materialism which is the source of all confusion and of mankind's multiplied problems."

She added: "We rejoice in widely accumulating evidence, in terms of Christian healing, that the needed spiritual understanding is available to humanity today."

Key officials reported on the far-flung activities of the denomination, which has branches throughout the United States and in 41 other countries.

Relief totalling some $200,000 was voluntarily contributed by Christian Scientists to aid sufferers in the Kansas-Missouri Valley flood, Roy Garrett Watson, treasurer of The Mother Church, announced.

In another field, the Christian Science Camp Welfare department disclosed that more than 360 camp welfare workers were ministering to hospitalized veterans and members of the armed forces. In addition, 13 Christian Science chaplains—three of them in Korea—were on active duty with troops.

George Channing, manager of Christian Science Committees on Publication, reported increasing official state and local recognition of the right of the individual to exemption from compulsory physical examinations in good faith on religious grounds.

Our little globe trotter, Miss Anne Blau, is home for the summer. In April she stuck one of her little fingers into a car door at the wrong time and nearly lost it, and was thereby retained by doctor's orders in southern California for treatment until last week. Immediately upon release, Mrs. Blau made a bee line for home, and is very happy indeed to be here.

Last week those living in this area were reminded again of the seriousness of fire hazards in our timberlands, when the Pederson home on Skid Road was completely destroyed apparently through careless handling of trash burning. Not only was this beautiful home, valued at $24,000 destroyed but the forest around it as well. From the ashes of this home stems the growth of an efficient fire fighting equipment to be mannde by our volunteer group of fire fighters who had their initial workout at our most recent and devastating fire right in the heart of our homes. A movement is underway for procurement of the best fire fighting equipment available for this section of the country. On the night of June 25 dinners will be served at Cal-Vada, Cal-Neva and North Shore Club at ten dollars per plate to property owners of the North Tahoe area, complete proceeds to go toward purchase and maintenance of this fire fighting project. Tickets will be on sale everywhere in the near future. When you are approached on this subject, you will know that your purchase of a dinner is also a purchase of fire protection. See you on the hill June 25.

Praise goes to Clarence Beavers of the Forest Service who had two trucks on the scene of the fire in record time after receiving word of it. Pederson carried only $8,000 worth of insurance, it is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crawford of San Bernardino are guests of the Ernie Crawfords of Tahoe Vista this week. Jimmy (Butch) is showing his uncle how to catch fish while they are here.

We sure miss our "bug" station and its attendants up here. The Season really opened with a bang last weekend when all resorts, at least all I've heard from, were proudly displaying their "No Vacancy" signs.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Murray have returned to their summer home in Tahoe Estates after a long winter in Merced during which both Mr. and Mrs. Murray were hospitalized a portion of the time. Both are happy to be back home and feel better already.

Again individuals have exercised their right to express their wishes at the polls on June 3. In our local area, two contestants, Frank Paoli and Bob Hobbs, running for the post of supervisor of the 4th district, came in on a tie, each polling 133 votes.

From the depths of a grateful heart comes my expression of gratitude to those of the North Tahoe Women's Club who took the time from ordinary living and duties to rehearse and produce the beautiful program presented at the final meeting for this summer, held at Kings Beach school house last Thursday evening. I hadn't planned to go. Am ever so glad someone urged me to at least be there for the program. Wouldn't have missed it for the world! We have talent in this Kings Beach area!

Everette and Virginia were in partnership with his parents, Eva and Harry Mason, until little more than two years ago when the Bettencourts bought over the parents interests with a view to expanding the business. The Bettencourts are now on the job, making ready for an active summer.
